Beauty and Fragrance

The rose, considered the queen of flowers, has long been appreciated for her bewitching and timeless scent. Fragrance is one of the main attributes we look when searching for new and interesting roses to add to our Nature's Classics collection. Our customers know that scent sells! Look for the perfume bottle throughout the catalog to highlight these well fragrancd favorites. We hope you love our selections for 2025 as much as we do.

"Take time to smell the roses. Appreciating the little things in life really can make all the difference."
- Andy Puddicombe
